ELSEWHERE will be found published in extense the petition addressed by the Swedish missionaries to the Foreign Ministers at Peking in reference to the failure of the Chinese Authorities, to either do justice in the matter of the Sungpu massacro or to accord adequate protection to missionaries in the interior. The facts of that now notorious and ever shameful crime are too well known to require recapitulation, but the petition well merits perusal inasmuch as it it not only sets forth the letails of the murder of Messrs. Wikholm and Johansson but, starting with the establishment of the Swedish Mission in Hupeh, it gives the entire history of the tragedy at Sungpu and all the subsequent attempts to obtain reparation. The petition is of course an | and Shaughai. appeal to the Foreign Representatives from the settlement arrived at by Mr. CARL BOCK, the Consul-General for Sweden, which has caused profound and universal dissatisfaction among the missionaries of all sects and nationalities. Those terms, however, were not of a character likely to secure the missionaries from danger in the future or their converts from ill-treatment and persecution. Hence it is that the Consul-General and Messra. Lund and LINDSTROM, the petitioners, are of widely differing opinions. The petitioners give documentary evidence to show that the officials have dealt with the case in such a manner of State for Foreign Affairs has replied favourthat the innocent-and especially those friendly to the missionaries—have been case as against Mr. Bock as follows:
